Proposed Menu for Lunch:

No cooking or chopping in the hall. All cooking activities should only be performed inside the kitchen. No eating or drinking is allowed inside the kitchen at any time. The sponsor and team should plan on attending the Temple aarti at 12:30pm upstairs. The food should not be served until the Aarti has been completed which usually is not before 12:45pm The kitchen floor and the tables/counter should be kept clean. No food should be packed before 2pm by anyone, even by the hosts. No Onion or Garlic in food. Should have a simple menu with fewer items.

Use the Priest entrance door to unload the groceries and use the dumb elevator to send to the kitchen. Promptly Park your car in the parking and do not leave under the canopy. After that enter the Temple from the main door via the bridge and place your shoes/coats in the front shoe room.

The Temple provides the paper products and will take care of vacuuming and trash removal.

Do not leave behind any left-over food & NO FOOD SHOULD BE DUMPED INTO THE KITCHEN SINK.

I have read the above rules & I agree to abide by the above rules and regulations governing the use of Temple Hall for Sunday Lunch. For any questions, please contact Ms. Nisha Roy at (440) 897-4463

Completed form should be emailed to shivavishnutemple@gmail.com
